PRESS RELEASE: National Defense PAC Endorses Rob Altman for Congress in Texas' 10th District

WASHINGTON, D.C. / TEXAS — February 12th, 2025 — National Defense PAC announced today its endorsement of Rob Altman, Republican candidate for Congress in Texas' 10th Congressional District, citing his extensive military service, lifelong commitment to national security, strong leadership, and dedication to serving both his country and community.

Rob Altman is a retired U.S. Army officer with over 25 years of service, including leadership roles that required strategic decision-making, operational accountability, and a deep understanding of the national security challenges facing the United States. His campaign emphasizes that strong national defense begins at home — through secure borders, a resilient economy, and unwavering support for veterans, military personnel, and their families.

“Rob Altman understands that America’s strength abroad depends on strength at home,” said Bob Carey, retired U.S. Navy Captain and Chair of National Defense PAC. “His experience in uniform, combined with his commitment to conservative values and constitutional principles, makes him exactly the kind of leader we need in Congress to confront today’s global threats.”

Altman has made national security and veterans’ care central pillars of his campaign, advocating for a modernized military, accountable defense spending, and reforms to ensure veterans receive timely, high-quality healthcare and support.

“I’m honored to receive the endorsement of National Defense PAC,” said Rob Altman. “Having spent my life serving this country, I know firsthand the cost of freedom and the importance of principled leadership. In Congress, I will fight to keep America strong, protect our allies, and always put our service members, veterans, and Texas families first.”

Texas’ 10th Congressional District spans urban, suburban, and rural communities, all of which play a critical role in America’s economic vitality and national security. Altman’s campaign continues to gain momentum across the district as voters seek experienced leadership grounded in service, faith, and accountability.
